Activity Name: Farmyard Animal Rhyming

- School Readiness Outcomes (SRO) goals met:
  - Recognizes and makes rhymes
  - Engages in problem solving
  -
- Instructions:

Farm Animals Rhyming

Directions for parent: This is a simple activity meant to be done as a fun pastime between parent and child. The directions are simple, read the following poem to your child and stop when the line reaches a blank. Read the fill-in answers and ask your child to guess which one of them is the correct answer. These are like mad libs but with correct answers!

Can you name the animals of the farm?
They're all so cute, and they mean you no ____ (harm, trouble, karma)

First we have the cow, who likes to say Moooooo
They also make the milk we drink! Who ____ (knew, thought, grew)

Then there's chickens, who lay our eggs!
They like to walk around on their thin little ____ (legs, wings, gregs)

Which animal says oink? That's right! The pig!
Wouldn't they just look so funny if they all wore a ____ (wig, hat, twig)

Finally, we have the cutest animal! The duck!
Who like to spend their days playing in icky ____ (muck, mud, yuck)

ECLIPSE