Occupation Rhyming

Directions for parent: This is a simple activity meant to be done as a fun pastime between parent and child. The directions are simple, read the following poem to your child and stop when the line reaches a blank. Read the fill-in answers and ask your child to guess which one of them is the correct answer. These are like mad libs but with correct answers!

Let's talk about jobs! What we could be when we grow up!
Can you tell me who would jump into a river to save a ____ (pup, doggy, cup)
Right! A firefighter, they volunteer just to help!

Who do we go to when we get so hurt we ____ (yelp, yell, help)

Yeah! A doctor, who likes to help the injured and sick!
How about a magician? Who wows an audience with an amazing ____ (trick, performance, stick)

There's librarians, who spend their time caring for books.
Even makeup artists, who are always chasing the best ____ (looks, style, hooks)

You can be anything you want! So go and explore!
Just make sure you find a job that doesn't feel like a ____ (chore, nap, bore)
