- Instructions
 1. Color paper as you like, then cut out ovals (scales); scales can be however big or small you'd like!
 2. On the back side of each scale, write a person's name or an attribute/trait of a friend (If a child is unable to write out the words, then encourage them to draw a picture of who or what they are trying to represent).
 3. Once scales are colored, cut, and written on, give them to the desired individual.
